

How to maintain your information on the Register

Type vReg.RegisterToVoteON.ca into your browser.

To maintain your information for provincial and local elections at your home address:

- 1 Click the Get started button under Confirm, update or add my home address.

Confirm, update or add my home address

To update or add your information, you will need one piece of ID that has both your name and Ontario home address.

Get started

If you're temporarily living outside of Ontario, you may be eligible to add yourself to the Register of Absentee Voters.
If you're 16 or 17 and reside in Ontario, you can add yourself to the Ontario Register of Future Voters.

- 2 Read the Important information page, then click the Next button.
- 3 Under Citizenship, select “Yes” or “No” to indicate your citizenship status.
- 4 Under Tell us where you live, select “Currently living in Ontario”.
- 5 Under Personal information, enter your first name, middle name (if applicable), last name, and date of birth, then click the Next button.
- 6 Check that the information under Personal information is correct.
- 7 Under Address information, select “My home address”.
- 8 Under Search for your home address by, select your address type and enter your address, then click the Search button.

Search for your home address by

Postal code

Municipality

Geographic areas within Ontario without municipal organization
e.g. District of Kenora ⓘ

First Nation reserve

Postal code

NON ONO

How to maintain your information on the Register

To find your existing record, an exact match with the information in our database is required. If you have previously been registered to vote but the system cannot find you, click the Change or Previous button to go back and revise your information.

- Try searching using a variation of your name, such as a nickname, or a previous version of your name.
- Try searching under an old address.
- Try different ways of searching under your current address – add or remove a unit number, search by municipality instead of postal code, or search under an alternative road name (e.g. County Road 43 instead of Banwell Road).

9 On the Search results page, confirm that the information displayed under Full name, Date of birth, and Home address is correct, then click Submit.

Search results

We could not find you with the information provided.

Confirm your information or change it, if necessary

Full name: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Search for your information with a variation of your name or nickname (e.g. Rob for Robert)• Search for your information with your new or previous name (e.g. marriage, divorce, legal name change) Jane Doe
Date of birth: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Is this your correct date of birth? January 1, 1985
Home address: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• If you have recently moved, search for your information at your previous Ontario address. 123 MAIN ST, TORONTO M4E 2V9

Previous Submit

Start over

How to maintain your information on the Register

- 10 If your information was not found in our system, you will need to add yourself to the Register. On the Add me to the Register - Verification page, enter your mailing address or confirm that the one displayed is the same as your home address, then click Next.
- 11 On the Add me to the Register - ID page, enter your Ontario driver's licence number or, Ontario photo card number, or upload a PDF or image file of an ID that meets the requirements described, then click Next.
- 12 On the Add me to the Register - Additional properties page, select "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether you or your spouse own or rent additional properties in Ontario, then click Next.

If you selected "Yes", follow these steps:

- Click Add property and enter the information for your additional property in the pop-up window, then click Next.
 - Upload a PDF or image file of the documentation that meets the requirements described, then click Add.
 - Repeat first two steps for any other properties that you wish to add.
- 13 On the Add me to the Register - Contact information page, enter your contact information so that Elections Ontario can contact you about your request to maintain your information on the Register.
 - 14 On the Add me to the Register - Confirmation page, confirm that the information displayed in the Personal information and Additional properties sections is correct. Click Previous to go back and change any of the information displayed.
 - 15 Select "Yes" or "No" to share your information with Elections Canada, MPAC, your municipality, and local boards. If you select "No", please note that you may miss out on important information about federal and local elections.
 - 16 Read the Declaration and click the box to certify that you agree with the statement, then click Submit.

How to maintain your information on the Register

To maintain your information for local elections at a property other than your home address:

Search, add or remove a property other than my home address

If you or your spouse own or rent property other than your home address in Ontario, you may be eligible to vote in more than one local election.

To add a property, you will need one piece of ID and proof of property ownership or tenancy.

Search or add

Remove a property that you or your spouse no longer own or rent. You will need to submit one piece of ID.

- 1 Click the Search or add button under Search, add or remove a property other than my home address.
- 2 Read the Important information page, then click the Next button.
- 3 Under Citizenship, select “Yes” or “No” to indicate your citizenship status.
- 4 Under Tell us where you live, select the option that applies to you.
- 5 Under Personal information, enter your first name, middle name (if applicable), last name, and date of birth, then click the Next button.
- 6 Check that the information under Personal information is correct.
- 7 Under Address information, select the option that matches your address type, enter your address, then click the Search button.

Address information

Property type

My home address ⓘ

A property that my spouse or I own or rent other than my home address in Ontario

To find your existing record, an exact match with the information in our database is required. If you have previously been registered to vote but the system cannot find you, click the Change or Previous button to go back and revise your information.

- Try searching using a variation of your name, such as a nickname, or a previous version of your name.
- Try searching under an old address.
- Try different ways of searching under your current address – add or remove a unit number, search by municipality instead of postal code, or search under an alternative road name (e.g. County Road 43 instead of Banwell Road).

How to maintain your information on the Register

-
- 8 If your information was not found in our system, you will need to add yourself to the Register. On the Search results page, confirm that the information displayed under Full name, Date of birth, and Property address is correct, then click Add property.
 - 9 On the Add me to the Register - Verification page, enter your mailing address, then click Next.
 - 10 On the Add me to the Register - Property documentation page, select the option that applies to you under “Connection to the property” and upload a PDF or image file of the documentation that meets the requirements described, then click Next.
 - 11 On the Add me to the Register - Contact information page, enter your contact information so that Elections Ontario can contact you about your request to maintain your information on the Register.
 - 12 On the Add me to the Register - Confirmation page, confirm that information displayed in the Personal information and Property to be added sections is correct. Click Previous to go back and change any of the information displayed.
 - 13 Read the Declaration and click the box to certify that you agree with the statement, then click Submit.